

Blazing Trails

through the Jungle of Food Regulation

Get help selling food in Minnesota. The Blazing Trails project can help you navigate the regulations.

Who should attend?

Anyone with a passion for their local farms and local food ...

Who sees potential for local food systems where they live ...

But is confused or intimidated by food regulations.

You can learn more about the following subjects at the Blazing Trails workshop:

- Approved Source
- Community-Supported Agriculture
- Cottage Food
- Farmers Markets
- Farm to School
- Farm to Childcare
- Farm to Institution
- Food Demonstration & Sampling
- Food Processing
- Produce Safety
- Product of the Farm
- Retail
- Wholesale

Tuesday, October 8, 2019
8:00 - 8:30 registration | 8:30 -12:45 program
Wright County Extension
3500 Braddock Ave NE, Buffalo, MN 55313

No cost to attend, but registration is required:
<https://z.umn.edu/blazingtrails>

Coffee, fruit and refreshments will be available

Hosted by:

"Blazing Trails" is a project of the Minnesota Institute for Sustainable Agriculture, Renewing the Countryside, and the Minnesota Farmers' Market Association.